

Hancock Co. GA. Wills

Book B,

P. 186:

Freeman ALLEN, of Hancock Co, in low state of health desires Christian burial, to wife Jane ALLEN, 188 acres of land and plantation whereon I now live, with all improvements and appertenancies; one negroe boy named Phil, all household and kitchen furniture; all my stock of hogs, cattle, sheep and all my plantation tools--out of which she is to raise, support and educate my children, until they shall marry or arrive at lawful age. land and plantation bought of James Simmons containing 196 acres with negroe man named Dick to be sold at public auction by executors on credit of 12 months, and money to pay debts--after debts, money to be divided amongst all my children as they shall severally marry or arrive at lawful age.

Beloved wife Jane ALLEN, executrix, and my friend James Bullard, executor.
